

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS FOR CCUMC'S VIDEO CONTEST

CCUMC's Conference Program Committee is now accepting submissions for our Third Annual CCUMC Video Contest!!!

Categories will include: BEST PROMOTIONAL VIDEO of your own campus services and BEST TRAINING VIDEO for staff, students or faculty on your campus. These categories will be judged using the following criteria: production value, content, addressing target audience effectiveness and overall quality. Videos should not exceed 15 minutes in length.

A panel of judges will review all submissions and those videos selected for Best Promotional Video and Best Training Video will be screened and awarded prizes at the 2011 CCUMC Annual Conference in South Padre Island, TX. In addition, with the winners' permission, these videos will be featured on the CCUMC website to showcase the excellent services and training that your organization provides.

To submit your video please contact Adam Stewart at adam.stewart@utah.edu in order to provide a public url or video file (please submit file in a .wmv, .mov or .mp4 format). All submissions must be received no later than August 12th, 2011. This contest is open to CCUMC members only. For more information contact Adam at 801.581.7134 or the CCUMC Executive Office at 812.855.6049.
